MUTUAL RESPECT

Lord Jesus,

We light this candle to remind us that You are the Light of the World.

As we come together to pray and praise, may your light remove all darkness from our lives.
Amen.

MUTUAL RESPECT

Why do players shake hands before a match?

‘Mutual respect’

- But what does ‘respect’ mean?
- Here is what pupils Amelie and Shaeya found out when they asked people in their school community what respect means to them

'listen', 'equal',

Reflect and Prayer

Reflect: Sometimes it's easy to show respect and sometimes it's hard.

But when we respect others and treat them well, we respect ourselves and show the world how we want to be treated in return.

How can you show respect today?

Prayer: We thank you for giving us the patience and understanding to reach out to others and treat them with dignity and respect. Help us to remember that everyone is equal, to value other people, and to treat them well, just as we wish to be treated. Amen.

LEADER

Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

ALL

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all, now and evermore. Amen
